Two windmills were overturned, the roof of the tenant house torn off, stable house damaged and cattle and windmill had havoc. While Mr. Cullen and his family were awakened by the violence of the wind and rain, the animals were serious damage done at the house although the roof was torn off in several places.

American gunners are making an excellent reputation in France. Marksmanship is an American trait.

The detachment leaving Morgan county today only increases our determination to see this war thru to a successful end.

Congress has passed a bill enabling quick work with L. W. and kindred organizations, overruling technicalities raised by lawyers in order to create delay.

Hundreds of thousands of boys have been asked by the government to locate walnut trees. Later in the year the boys will find the task an easy one.

The president refuses to let young soldiers who sleep at their post suffer the death penalty. Some one in authority must have slept at their post in the building of aeroplanes.

The first two American women killed in active service were both Y. M. C. A. canteen workers, Miss Winona C. Martin of Rockville Center, L. I., and Miss Marion G. Crandall of Alameda, Cal.

No charge is ever made soldiers or sailors for writing paper or envelopes in a Y. M. C. A. building or hut. Millions of letters are written weekly on stationery bearing the Red Triangle insignia of the Y. M. C. A.

Criticism of the government seems to be permitted in England. A former director of military operations charging Premier George and Chancellor Law with untruthfulness. Charges of graft and inefficiency are even heard in this country.

Why should not the government consent energy by consolidating the three investigations?

DEATH AND RUIN IN WINDSTORM'S WAKE

and a great many windows broken. Mr. Curry carries insurance probably of sufficient amount to cover the greater part of the loss.

On the Iven Wood farm, also in the Pisgah locality, the cupola on the big barn was blown off and some other damage was done to this building. The dwelling house has a slate roof and it was also considerably damaged.

W. H. Moseley, who drove in to Jacksonville from his home in the Pisgah neighborhood in order to bring in window sash with the glass shattered, said that there was a vast amount of damage done in his locality. Several smaller buildings were torn to pieces and the Moseley farm and window sash in the main farm residence and in several other dwellings were shattered by the wind and hail. Mr. Moseley said that a survey of the nearby country from his home showed a great many trees uprooted, fences down and farm buildings scattered over a wide area.

The elevator at Pisgah station may have to be rebuilt as the result of the storm damage. The building is said to be eight or ten feet out of line as the result of the wind and unless it is possible to straighten it by some mechanical means rebuilding will be necessary.

Silo Blown Down.

On the R. Y. Gibson farm three miles southeast of the city a silo was blown down and some other damage done. On the Edward Hembrough farm also southeast of the city, a cattle barn was demolished.

In the west part of the county the wind did not blow with the violence that was true in the vicinity of Pisgah and Franklin. At Meredosia the people not only were awakened by the violence of the wind and hail but the stones were of such size that practically all skylights in the store buildings were shattered and about the town a great many windows were broken.

On the farm of W. T. Scott east of the city quite a little damage was done. Lightning struck the barn but owing to the heavy downfall of rain the barn did not burn. About fifty trees were blown down, several big trees in the yard near the house were torn up by the roots and a large number of young apple trees in the orchard were laid flat.

Heavy Damage to Wires.

The damage to wires was heavy. The Western Union was completely out of commission early in the day. Manager Pine finally getting a wire to Chicago, but this circuit was very poor.

Both telephone companies were hit hard both in the city and country. The Bell system lost its Springfield circuits when several poles fell on Morton road.

Manager Taylor ordered men sent here from Beardstown and other nearby towns and expects to clear up the damage in a short time.

The Illinois Telephone company had a large number of men working on their circuits and will have things in running order in a few days.

The Associated Press circuit went out when the Bell poles went down on Morton road, but a switch was made to the "emergency" circuit which is routed via Virginia to Springfield, thence to Chicago, and only a few minutes were lost.

The Western Union lost some poles on the Wabash and that road was without wire facilities. The Burlington wires went out near Franklin cutting off the south end.

Damage at Franklin.

In and near Franklin there was much damage. The new elevator was so badly damaged that Mr. Calhoun fears the whole structure will have to come down. The roof of Charles Ohlinger's store was badly damaged. William Alford's barn was much injured. Henry Slack suffered the loss of the roof of his house, barns demolished, a horse killed and minor losses.

In Franklin the storm performed queer freaks. A door in the residence of Warren Luttrell was split as the it has been done with an axe. The roof of the Ohlinger opera house was deposited in a tree some distance away from the building. At the office of Dr. Perkins a large limb was blown thru a partition and fell across the chair in which the doctor usually sits while at work. Had he been at his desk at the time he probably would have been killed.

The home of William Oxley was utterly demolished but fortunately no one was hurt. The residence of John Oxley was blown away and scattered about but no one was seriously hurt. A horse was killed and some stock injured.

Henry Trotter near Durbin had new garage and sheds destroyed, and fences blown away. W. D. McCormick's farm near Durbin; barn blown down.

At Clemens station, John Shirley's store was set fire by lightning and wholly consumed. No one was in the building, which was about 30 by 50 feet. The floor and basement were full of goods; loss some $5,000, with some insurance.

East of Woodson much timber for a wide swath was uprooted. Thomas Mehan at Bluffs reported picking up a bucket full of hailstones weighing from 8 to 16 ounces.

A. D. Fernandes north of the city was a sufferer. On a floor he had $7.40 worth of flour and meal ruined by water. His fine garden was all under water. He had out $3.00 worth of onion sets and 7 1/2 bushels of potatoes planted and all seems to be ruined.

The huge crane at the steel bridge works was blown over. William Arnold, east of city; silo demolished. Much other damage.

Harley Adams, Hoston Cowgur and Moses Perry played the part of Good Samaritans by hauling people across the inundated parts of Hardin and Clay avenues and South East street.

There was little wind about Sinclair and Litterberry. East of Salem church damage was slight.

Heavy Rainfall.

According to George Hall, observer at Alexander, more than three inches of rain fell.

Oran Kernan, south of Alexander, several implement houses blown over.

Joseph Bergscheider, near Alexander. Cattle sheds demolished and several cattle injured.

Robert Smith, near Sulphur Springs, last several buildings blown down.

George Wood, near Franklin. Barns and buildings damaged.

The night express on the Wabash ran into a tangle of telegraph wires east of Arnold and was obliged to back up to the station, uncouple the engine and run to Jacksonville to summon help from Springfield to clear the track and set instructions.

Irvin Stevenson's place near Orleans; barn roof, buildings and fences demolished, apple trees uprooted and lots of damage generally. Mr. Stevenson had recently put all his buildings in order.

Rees Also Suffers.

At Rees the storm created havoc with property. The store of John Ebrey was blown all to pieces. A large corn crib also was blown down. A. H. Youker's residence was badly damaged. A large house was unroofed and the roofs were taken off of the residence, barn and sheds of W. J. Bottom. A chicken house containing 300 chickens was unroofed and all the chickens drowned.

In the vicinity of Pisgah a large windmill was blown over on the farm of George S. Beekman. A large glass was blown out of the door and clear across the room and his wife also was blown across the room but fortunately was not injured.

At the farm of Ezra Scott occupied by George Hogan a great deal of damage was done. A part of the roof was blown off the house. A large granary was unroofed and the scales and scale house demolished. Damage also resulted to grain.

The roof was demolished on the residence of William Beekman. The residence of Oscar Harmon also had part of the roof torn off. Mr. Harmon was in bed ill of pneumonia and was removed to Franklin Thursday morning. His condition is considered serious.

By a strange coincidence a similar storm visited the vicinity of Pisgah just 38 years ago Thursday. That storm demolished the his daughter.

home of J. B. Beekman and killed Storms in Other Years.

In the spring of 1883, Litterberry was nearly demolished by a cyclone. A threshing machine was lifted over a house and set down on the other side. A baby was landed in a cornfield and found uninjured. Jerry Henderson's house was demolished and he said there wasn't a whole square inch on Aunt Susanne's body. The destruction was terrible.

In the spring of 1886 a small cyclone passed nearly due east a short distance north of the city. It struck a corner of F. M. Doan's house, took a two story house nearly right up in the air where it exploded; passed on and demolished Stansfield Baldwin's home and did some more damage there and then rose.

The fearful storm that visited Mt. Vernon about 1893 will long be remembered. A straw was driven thru a stick an inch in diameter and chickens were picked.

The whirlwind that devastated East St. Louis and a part of St. Louis in 1896 was fearful. In the East St. Louis railroad yards acres of cars were whirled about as if in a maelstrom, a part of the Eads bridge was destroyed and lots of damage done. St. Louis was sleep then. A few ferry boats piled in a leisurely fashion and stopped before night leaving people frantically begging to be taken across.

On Morton Road.

At the farm home of T. H. Buckthorpe on the Morton road shingles were blown from both the barn and the house, doing a considerable amount of damage. In the grove about 300 yards west of the house the wind was so strong that six large trees were wholly uprooted and branches were blown from many others. Mr. Buckthorpe had four horses, two colts and ten yearling cattle in this grove but fortunately none of them were injured.

J. M. Starr, who lives in the same neighborhood on the Morton road, had two silos overturned by the storm. A number of cows were near them but the timbers fell in such a way that the animals were not hurt.

J. Harney, living in Woodson precinct, had considerable damage done to outbuildings on his farm.

One of the largest trees blown down by the wind was on West Lafayette avenue near the home of Harry Furry. It was a giant elm badly rotted near the ground and it came crashing down when it fell.

Other Storm Notes.

At the residence of W. R. Huckleby on West State street the storm blew the covering from the scuttle hole on the roof. Thru this opening great quantities of water came into the attic and then soaked thru the ceilings into the rooms below. Pans and tubs were utilized to catch the water and there was some time before the occupants of the house really understood the cause of the trouble. Even then it was so dark and the storm was raging so fiercely that it was not possible to find the roof covering and replace it.

On the farm of Phil Cleary, west of Jacksonville a silo was blown down. W. A. Masters, county treasurer, visited his farm six miles southeast of the city, and said yesterday afternoon that the damage to buildings is probably $700 or $800. There was also considerable damage to the orchard, many fruit bearing trees being broken down.

C. W. Cully is another farm owner who suffered loss. On his farm a few miles east of Jacksonville a shed 20 by 25 feet in dimensions was blown down. It was in course of construction and the rafters were in position and some of the sheeting had been done. At least seven windows in the house were broken out and some other general damage was done.

At the residence of William R. Harline, 522 Hardin avenue, a branch of a tree blew on the roof of the house and did damage to the extent of $200 or $300.

At the store of Charles Stevenson on South Main street a heavy branch did considerable damage to the roof.

A report last night from Franklin was that Durbin church was blown down by the storm.

Jerry Sweeney said last night that he had been crossing the Brook for the past 55 years and that Thursday morning the water was the highest he had ever known. Mr. Sweeney was compelled to cross the brook on the C. & A. road in order to reach his South East street home.

The wind tore the roof off a portion of the building occupied by Peacock Inn and the rain did some damage to the upstairs rooms.

At the Hembrough Farm.

Grea, damage resulted from the storm at the farm of Mrs. Hannah Hembrough four miles southeast of the city. Several large trees were uprooted and two thirty foot silos were demolished. The tops of the silos broke windows in one side of the residence. A small hen house containing 100 chickens was destroyed and all the chickens but ten killed. A brooder which was in the hen house was literally torn to pieces.

A large cattle barn was blown down and a scale house was carried a distance of eighty feet by the wind. A large corn crib was wrecked and large holes torn in a newly shingled barn. Shingles were also torn from the roof of the residence and the rain did considerable damage to interior of the room and contents. Fences were laid flat and the stock roamed all over the farm. While the damage will amount to many hundreds of dollars the family is thankful that no one was injured.

BARBERIES MUST BE DUG OUT IMMEDIATELY

To Remove Damage to Wheat.

"If the campaign to aid in increasing the wheat crop this year by eradicating the common barberry is to be effective, quick action is absolutely essential," said Professor F. L. Stevens, State Leader for Barberry Eradication. "The spores of the wheat rust start to pass from the barberry to the wheat from the middle to the latter part of May according to the nature of the season. This year it will probably be near the twentieth of the month before serious damage is done, so there is yet time to dig up the bushes." But there should be no delay," he continued, "since a few seasonable days may start the rust and ruin thousands of bushels of grain."

"There has been a tendency on the part of many," said Dr. Stevens, "to wait until the other fellow acts. Its another case of 'let George do it.' If a citizen has barberry bushes of the common or European species on his premises and does not immediately remove them he is joining against the expressed wish of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Secretary of Agriculture Houston has written Governor Lowden that the eradication of the common barberry is desired. This should have the effect of a command to every patriotic citizen of the state. The State Council of Defense has issued an appeal to the people of this state requesting them to eradicate this dangerous shrub. Yet we have had numerous letters asking if there is a law compelling one to take such action? Others have stated that they are waiting until someone comes around to tell them to dig up their shrubs. Of course this is impossible since it would take an army to locate all the barberries in the state."

"There is one other fact that should be clearly understood," Dr. Stevens concluded. "The Japanese barberry is an absolutely harmless shrub. It would be a great pity if these beautiful shrubs had to be removed. This is especially fortunate since there are thousands of these planted to one of the common or tall species. Dig up the common and purple leaves shrubs and do it at once," was his final injunction. "Two weeks from now it will be too late so far as the wheat crop of this year is concerned."

CRABTREE'S LEADING IN INDOOR LEAGUE

Wins Second Game by Close Score —Blue Devils and Silver Stars Tied for Second Place.

In a very exciting finish in which a couple of home runs were knocked out with the bases full, Crabtree's Midgets won a closely fought game in the Junior B Indoor Baseball League yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A.

Harrison and Landis, battery for the Midgets, were a little off form and had they not redeemed themselves with some timely hits they would have had to take their hats off to the Blue Devils who were hitting in mid-season form. The final score was 12 to 19 in favor of the Midgets.

The other game between the Silver Stars and Featherweights was also a very good game the score being tied every inning up to the last. The final outcome of this game was 19 to 16 in favor of the Featherweights.

ANOTHER PIONEER RESIDENT PASSES ON

Mrs. Sarah Jackson Jewsbury Dies at Home Near Litterberry —Was Born One Mile East of Jacksonville in 1831.

Litterberry, May 9.—Mrs. Sarah Jackson Jewsbury, a pioneer resident of the county died at her home one mile south of Litterberry Thursday evening at 9:30 o'clock. Mrs. Jewsbury had been in ill health for some time but an attack of pneumonia was the immediate cause of death.

Deceased was born one mile east of Jacksonville, September 7, 1831 and all of her long life was spent in Morgan county. She saw the community grow from its primitive frontier days to its present prosperous and highly cultured position. Thru the years her best efforts were given for the betterment of society and she could always be found aligned with any good movement.

She was united in marriage to Richard S. Jewsbury 62 years ago. He preceded her in death two years ago. To this union eight children were born. Two of them are dead.

Those surviving are: Mary C., Henry C., Thomas A., Tizrah A., and Amanda Jewsbury at home and Mrs. Fanny D. Sears of Lynville.

Arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

H. E. READ HAS NEW BOOK ON INHERITANCE.

Notice has been received by a number of Jacksonville people of a book by Harlan Eugene Read soon to come from the presses of the MacMillan Co., New York. "The Abolition of Inheritance" is the title of the book, in which this author, so well known in Jacksonville, discusses the right of inheritance. In Mr. Read's opinion the power of vast inherited estates has become, next to capitalism, the world's greatest menace. No child, in his view, has a right to inherit from parents any vast sum and it is his earnest belief that heirs have no right to what they do not earn. The subject is one of vital interest and advance notices of the book indicate that Mr. Read has handled it in a very strong and interesting way.

As proof that the question of inheritance tax is one of increasing interest, Mr. Read declares that within the last twenty months nine states have raised their inheritance taxes to an enormous extent and says that today only four states lack an inheritance tax.

FUNERALS

Ennis.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ira Ennis were held from First Baptist church Thursday afternoon in charge of the Rev. A. A. Fodd. Miss Hilma Franz sang two solos. Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery, the bearers being George Siegfried, James McDonald, T. H. Rapp, J. Marshall Miller, John Catherwood and John Brown.

Brown.

Funeral services for David Brown were held from the residence Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Myron L. Pontius. The flowers were cared for by Miss Louise Kelly. Burial was in Jacksonville cemetery.

SECURE FINE BAND FOR CHAUTAUQUA.

The Chautauqua management feels fortunate in having secured the Liberti Band and Grand Concert Co. for Thursday and Friday, August 29 and 30, during the chautauqua. There are thirty one pieces in the band and there are fifteen singers in the troupe, all of them members of the Chicago Grand Opera company. The organization is said to be the strongest of its kind doing the chautauqua circuit and the management here is glad indeed, to be able to announce that such an attraction has been secured.

A GOOD SIGN
NO TELEPHONE CALLS BRING
TWO NASH ORDERS

Whenever an automobile keeps continually oversold, two are significant. First, that the automobile is either so good of every other car in its price class that it sells itself, or that the representative of the automobile is a graduate salesmanship. Not claiming to have qualities of salesmanship superior to those of competitors, it follows that the named fact is most significant, viz: That the Nash Six, its "perfected valve-in-head motor," really sells itself, as it was all day yesterday. C. W. Jacobs, manager of Jacobs Motor Car Co., received two telephone calls, each which resulted in a sale of a Nash Six. Both calls came at two hours, one from a prominent farmer and the other a banker. We are still a month behind with orders.

NOTICE TO AUTO OWNERS

A large number of auto- mobile and motorcycle owners who use West State and Prairie streets as a speedway seem to have no regard for human life or our traffic or- dinance. Machines are con- tinually going up and down this street at a greater speed than 15 miles an hour which is the limit. This practice must be stopped as the po- lice department will make every effort to arrest viola- tors. The fine for violation of the traffic ordinance is from $5 to $50. Special of- ficers will be detailed to catch these violators. GEO. P. DAVIS, Chief of Police.

THE COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL ELECTION

While not a great deal of inter- est was originally manifested in the community high school plan, there are now indications that there will be a representative vote cast at the election next Satur- day. In accordance with the no- tice issued by Supt. Vasconcellos the polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. The polling places for the various districts are as in- dicated in the notice which ap- pears elsewhere in the paper. There still seems to be some misunderstanding as to why the election on the question was called by the county superintendent of schools. The fact is that Mr. Vasconcellos had no choice in the matter, as it was his duty in ac- cordance with the law to call the election after petitions had been filed with him unless there was some legal defect in the petition. As the petition was in legal and proper form and was filed, only one course was left for the county superintendent, and he accord- ingly called the election for Sat- urday, May 11. The great majority of residents outside Jacksonville seem to be opposed to the community high school plan on the ground that the tax costs will be heavy. In the city the growing opposition is based on the fact that the large amount of insurance money re- ceived from the high school re- form, more than $100,000 could not be used for a community high school building and the belief that such a building would mean a heavy bond issue. Another argument frequently heard and which has great weight is that a vote on the part of Jacksonville to include surrounding territory in a high school district, without the wish of the people in the outside ter- ritory would be very likely to cause unfortunate ill feeling be- tween the city and the country.

CARL WEBER LEAVES FOR ARMY CAMP

Carl Weber, who sometime since enlisted for service in the ordnance department of the army, has been expecting orders for a number of days and has held him- self in readiness. Yesterday the telegraphic orders came and he will leave this afternoon for the Chicago & Alton for Camp Har- cock, Ga. There he will take a number of weeks' training, the course being identical with that originally carried out at Chicago university. Mr. Weber has been serving with great acceptance in the office of County Clerk C. A. Boruff. He goes from this office on leave of absence and when he re- turns from the war if Mr. Boruff is in the office, the position will be open for Mr. Weber. County Clerk Boruff evidently believes that any man who enlists for war service in this time of need should not be called upon to sacri- fice his position, especially if it is of a public kind, and it goes without saying that Mr. Weber appreciates this spirit.

Heand's Fluff—The Perfect shampoo—Treats as it cleans.
Too much or not enough oil is often the cause of scalp and hair troubles. A shampoo with ordinary soap removes all the natural oil from the hair. This is shortly followed by an excess of oil as a reaction.

Heand's Fluff is a shampoo made of the finest vegetable oils, by a wonderful vacuum process. These oils feed the hair roots during the shampoo and assist in preventing that dryness which ordinarily follows.

Heand's Fluff will aid in preserv-hair, and help keep the hair of men

HALE IS DISCHARGED
FROM MILITARY SERVICE

Was First Lieutenant of Company B—Word Comes to Exemption Board Office Thursday That Resignation Has Been Accepted By President.

Word was received at the office of the exemption board Thursday afternoon of the discharge from military service of First Lieut. Thomas K. Hale of Camp Logan, Texas. Lieut. Hale was a first lieutenant in Co. B, Illinois National guard, before the local company's induction into federal service. He was a young man of fine military bearing, strict disciplinarian and well liked as an officer. The reasons for his discharge from military service at this time are unexplained. The notice which reached the board read as follows:

War Department, P. M. G. C.
May 6.
Thru Adjutant General of Illinois,
Springfield, Ill.
For the information of the local board concerned, E. H.
Crowder, provost marshal, by H.
B. Shaw, major J. A. G. R. C.
Notice of discharge from military service.
Military post of camp—War department Washington.
Names—Thomas K. Hale.
Address—654 South Diamond street, Jacksonville.
Date of discharge—May 2, 1918.

Reason—Resignation accepted by the President.
Local board Morgan County.
Frank S. Dickson,
Adjutant General.
In justice to Mr. Hale it should here be stated that if he sought transfer to another branch of the country's service that he would have had to secure a discharge from army service and re-enlist. This would be true in case he sought transfer to the U. S. navy or the marine corps.
It would be necessary to resign from the army and this resignation, if granted, would make his re-enlistment in some other branch of the service possible.

The papers were received at the office of the local board yesterday authorizing induction into the service of three Morgan county men who recently volunteered thru the board. Zach Nichols who is employed at Jacksonville State hospital, will leave Monday for Washington, D. C., where he will enter government service at St. Elizabeth's hospital. This afternoon Carl Weber of Jacksonville and Albert Swan of Sinclair will leave via the Alton for Jefferson Barracks, to enter military service in the ordnance corps.

Word was received yesterday from Salvatore Russi, one of the men supposed to leave Jacksonville with the squad for Ft.
Thomas, Ky. This afternoon Russi is a present in Michigan and wired the board that he would come to Jacksonville immediately. If he does not reach here in time to accompany the other six to Ft. Thomas, he will be inducted into the service upon his arrival and leave for camp as soon as possible.

A fine picture of the flag raising at Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., last November, has been given the local board and now hangs in the office. The picture was received some days ago by Dr. C.
E. Black, member of the board, and at that time he made the proposition to Adjutant Green that if a suitable frame and glass could be secured for the picture that he would gladly make the board a present of it.
Andre & Andre kindly donated the frame and glass and also the work of framing the picture.

The Local Board is making arrangements for the mobilization and induction of the seventy registrants who are to be forwarded to Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss., within the five day period beginning May 25. All of the registrants named below, who are in line for call, are requested to advise the Local Board at once as to the nature of their present occupation. If they are "actively, completely, and assiduously engaged in the planting and cultivation of a crop" they should present an affidavit signed by the registrant and his employer affirming such occupation, and present same to the Local Board at once. Additional list will be published within the next day or two.

CUT ARM WITH BROKEN GLASS

John N. Joaquin, for more than forty-five years an employe of the Journal, suffered a painful injury Thursday afternoon while attempting to remove a partially broken pane of glass in the Journal building. During the storm early Thursday morning a portion of the window was shattered.
As he was working with the broken glass in order to remove the portion left in the sash, the glass slipped in such a way that a gash several inches long was cut in his right arm. Dr. A. M. King came speedily and gave first aid and then Mr. Joaquin was removed to

LONG WAIT IN STATION

Mrs. Preston Wood and Miss Florence Loar returned to Jacksonville Thursday from Olathe, Kans., where they had held teaching positions during the past year at the Kansas school for the deaf.
The school session there came to a close earlier than usual in order to make it possible for the boys to take work on the farms. Mrs.

Wood and Miss Loar reached Jacksonville over the early Wah-bash morning train from Kansas City while the storm was raging.
So many limbs and wires were in the streets that taxicab drivers were unwilling to make trips and accordingly these young women remained at the Wabash station from 2 a. m. until nearly 5 o'clock.

Now at Arcadia Field

Mr. Williamson says that Harlan has been receiving ground work and officers training at the Dallas camp and has now been sent to Arcadia field, a new flying field located in Florida, for the real work of flying. Arcadia is primarily a flying field. After his son's departure for the eastern camp Mr. Williamson visited Ft. Worth, where one of the huge national army cantonments is located, accommodating at the present time 30,000 men, and later went to Vernon, Tex., where he visited relatives a few days. Leaving Vernon, Enid and Tulsa, Okla., were visited on the return journey.

While at Dallas Mr. Williamson saw a number of Jacksonville boys, among them Harold McGinnis.

Where such a large number of men are under training each must take their turn in the matter of advancement. When the order comes for a certain number of men to be sent to a flying field to receive their final and most important work in flying, it sometimes happens that the men selected will not want to go to that particular field, being desirous of receiving transfer to a field nearer home. In that case the men are again put on the waiting list, and others not so particular are given the privilege of going. Altho Harlan would have liked very much to have been transferred to Rantoul Field, yet he is anxious to get into active service and win his commission and was ready to go to any camp when the call came.

French Flier an Expert

Mr. Williamson stated that last Saturday when he was at Dallas there was an athletic meet held which drew large crowds and created much interest. Several stunts in the air were pulled off by experienced flyers. One little French flier, an instructor at the school, was the especial center of attraction on account of his daring stunts, nose dives, tail spins, etc.

To show how perfectly this man had his machine under control, two pieces of white muslin a yard wide and sixteen feet long were laid on the ground and the aviators attempted to land on or as near to the white cloth as it was possible to stop their planes. The Frenchman brought his plane down on the muslin and stopping the craft in five feet, came to a halt almost upon the exact center of the cloth. Two other aviators who attempted this record, not equal the French flier's record.

C. E. WILLIAMSON AT SOUTHERN CAMP

Jacksonville Citizen Had Brief Visit With Son Now a Cadet Aviator—Order for Transfer Came Unexpectedly.

Charles E. Williamson returned Wednesday night from a week's trip thru the southwest. He left Jacksonville Thursday, the 2nd, for Dallas, Texas, to see his son, Harlan, who was a cadet aviator at the camp there. It was expected that Mr. Harlan would be transferred to another field and probably receive orders for overseas service. Mr. Williamson arrived at Dallas at noon Friday and Harlan, having received orders for transfer to a Florida camp, left Dallas at 8 o'clock that evening. While Mr. Williamson had been expecting to spend Sunday with his son, he was able to have a good, tho brief visit with Harlan before he left.

Mr. Williamson says that Harlan has been receiving ground work and officers training at the Dallas camp and has now been sent to Arcadia field, a new flying field located in Florida, for the real work of flying. Arcadia is primarily a flying field. After his son's departure for the eastern camp Mr. Williamson visited Ft. ## IMPORTANT EVIDENCE AT STRAUSS TRIAL

PEORIA, Ill., May 9.—What the state considers the most important evidence yet introduced against Edgar M. Strauss on trial for the murder of Berne M. Mead, cashier of the State Savings & Trust Bank was given this afternoon by W. B. Elliott, who testified that the bullet which entered the wall directly behind Mead's desk, leaving a bloody hole, was fired from the revolver found beside Mead's body and that the two other bullets one of which went wild and hit a girder, were fired from the revolver Strauss admitted he used. Contentions of the defense has been that Mead fired first at Strauss and that the latter shot in self defense while the state contended the first shot fired was the one that went thru Mead's head as he sat at his desk. The coroner also testified that both Mead's hands were bloody. Other witnesses previously had testified there was no blood on the gun found beside Mead.

TO TAKE UP OVERMAN BILL

Washington, May 9.—Agreement to take up the Overman bill giving the president authority to reorganize government departments next Monday was reached today in the house. There will be opposition and probably an extended debate, but the house leaders expect no such fight as that which held the measure up in the senate for many weeks.

INTERRED FOR WAR

Sioux City Enemy Alien to be Held for Period of War

Deming, N. M., May 9.—Ernest Lippe of Sioux City, Ia., who was discharged from the army while serving at Camp Cody here several months ago and delivered to the federal authorities, has been ordered interned for the period of the war as an enemy alien it was announced here today. Lippe was alleged to have been a non-commissioned officer in the German army. He is a mining engineer.

NEW YORK, May 9.—Ralph E. Jeremy, Wilkesbarre, Pa., one of the army aviation cadets who fell 1,000 feet in a collision between two airplanes at Central Park, L. I., yesterday died today at the Signal Corps Hospital at Hempstead.

John B. Erwin was killed in the accident and Julian R. Vidner slightly injured.

FORMER RUSS OFFICERS INTENSELY PRO-ENTENTE

Through British and American Consulates Seeking to Enlist as Private Soldiers in Armies of those Countries.

Harbin, Manchuria, May 9.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Officers of all ranks formerly in the Russian army have thronged the British and American consulates here seeking to enlist as private soldiers in the armies of those countries, since the Bolshevik revolutionaries extended their rule to Siberia. When they are told that the regulations do not permit the consuls to accept their offers, their disappointment is painful.

The hatred they express for the Bolsheviks indicated that they would do anything to counteract Bolshevik influence. All of those with whom the Associated Press correspondent has talked have been intensely pro-Entente. What is to become of them is one of the problems Russia will have to face in the future.

Large numbers of them, in a pitiful state, are flocking into Harbin from all parts of Siberia. Many are without funds and the majority are poorly clad. They range in rank from lieutenants to generals and come from the finest Russian stock.

Most of them have come from the large military centers in Siberia, from which they have escaped only after undergoing great hardship and much suffering. Many of those interviewed have related the most harrowing stories of murders and atrocities.

They explained that when the Bolshevik agents had succeeded in converting the soldiers to their cause, the first move was to shoot the officers in command, and in many instances their families were treated in the same manner, or worse. In some regiments, where a certain semblance of discipline remained, the officers were at first only degraded and set to do the most menial tasks. The indignities, however, became so bad that officers found them unendurable with result that many with the result that many officers committed suicide, while others in attempting to resent them were shot, or tortured in the most cruel and brutal manner.

The military centers such as Irkutsk, Vladivostok, Chitka, Harbin, Orovsk and Blagoveshchensk are so widely distributed that the journey to Harbin is a very long one, with the result that many of those attempting to escape were murdered enroute, altho every form of disguise was used.

The local military organization in Harbin is doing everything in its power to assist these refugees. Of the best families in Russia, and having been trained and educated solely with a view to becoming officers they are not fitted to earn their living in any other walk of life.

MANY WIRELESS OPERATORS GRADUATE

From Fifty to One Hundred Are Transferred from Big Harvard Radio School Each Week—Classes Aggregate 5,000.

Cambridge, Mass., May 9.—Uncle Sam is sending out every week from fifty to one hundred wireless operators from the big Harvard plant here which was transferred to the government a year ago as a radio finishing school. It is the only institution of the kind in the country, and its classes have in the aggregate 5,000 ambitious youths.

From the Harvard grounds and Harvard square the undergraduates seem to have disappeared; most of them are in service somewhere. The many young men in uniform give Cambridge much the appearance of a great naval center. Certainly, it is not like the university city of old. Many of the Harvard halls and dormitories that could be spared were turned over to the radio students, whose area of habitation extends close to the famous "Gold Coast", filled now largely with Harvard boys working their way thru college.

Memorial Hall, perhaps the most famous of all Harvard buildings, and wherein generations of undergraduates have died, is the main dining establishment for the radio army. Three times a day fifteen hundred of them march into Memorial Hall like a well drilled regiment of bluejackets and set up a clatter as they eat, that would do honor to any battalion of academic students.

But this old hall has its quiet period for on pay day, which comes twice a month, only a handful go there to dine. The radio boys walk with the "ghost" and go him one better by taking an eight-minute subway jump to Boston, where they come up for air and change of scenery.

The radio students notably are orderly. They are scattered over a wide area, many of them lodging in private homes without official restraint yet police and military records reveal blank blotters so far as they relate to radio students.

This being a finishing school, only those who are able to copy ten words a minute in the Continental code, which is much slower than the Morse, or regular telegraph code are admitted. In the sixteen weeks course. To be sent out for service they must be able to receive twenty-two words a minute the minimum grading. There are many experts among the teaching force whose speed runs up to 32 words a minute but beyond that a radio message would be hard to get. From three to six operators are assigned to each ship. With the large number of vessels building for the merchant marine and the navy, the radio school is doing its best to turn out experienced operators as fast as possible.

The radio men have come here from every State in the Union many of them under the draft age, and generally eager for active service. They represent every element of society. Of two who were sitting on the steps of the Germanic Museum, the other day, one had come from Louisiana and telling of his work at home he mentioned quite incidentally, that on Sundays he had sung in a Methodist church choir. "And I come from the East Side of New York City, his friend broke in, "and I had a regular job singing in a cabaret at 125th street. But we are buddies now," and he picked up a few bars of a song which has won much war time popularity. We hope to be assigned to the same ship," he added, "so that when we sink a Hun submarine we can send out the news thru the air in different languages. And, believe me, mine will be the sort for folks to remember."

does he call attention to the need of Y. M. C. A. workers for over-to that phase of Y. M. C. A. work at the present time. The committee in charge of the work in Morgan, Scott, Cass, Schuyler, Pike and Brown counties is composed of H. J. Rodgers, chairman; M. F. Dunlap, Dr. C. H. Rammelgiven herewith:

"I am thinking of that 'contemptible little army of 170,000,' for that is all we had; but we put them into France in the first two weeks of the war," he said.
"And don't you see heart, and don't you get pessimistic or downhearted or panicky. The Germans with their preparations of forty years, did not get through those Tommies and they won't get through now."Till the Last Man "And besides, you are there today, thank God! You are there,
"A lady in Washington said to me last week: 'Oh Gipsy Smith when will that British line break?
And I said to her: 'Madam, not until the last man is dead.'""Do you know that 5,000 British boys have held back 50,000 Huns, and I'll tell you why. We have right, on our side, and right gives moral courage and backbone and a clear conscience—it makes a man feel if he dies in doing it, somehow or other God is a chum who won't let a plan down."
"There were 30,000 of your brave American boys fighting beneath the British flag before you declared war. I know, because I met them and worked with them; I saw them in the hospitals and in the convalescent camps. And do you know who, they said to me?
They said: 'We could not remain men and keep out of it. We had to get into it to save our manhood.' And so they crossed the border of Canada and joined the Canadian forces, and some of them have won the D. S. O. and they have won the Victoria Cross and the military medal—and they are entitled to everything they got. God bless 'em."Are Going to Win
"We are proud of the boys—American boys who fought under the British flag and we are proud ber of German atrocities—horrors which had driven fighting men to seek out religion as a relief and added:"I wanted the opportunity of working with the boys. I knew they were good. I said to my church:

'Send me! But my church did not have the sense to.""But the Y. M. C. A. knows a good thing when it sees it. Let me tell you that every boy in khaki—and I think I can speak for the boys in America as well as the boys in Great Britain—the moment he sees a Red Triangle he knows it means 'welcome.' It stands for need, not creed; and will you please notice that it stands on its apex not on its base. It stands on its apex which means if it is not supported on the base it will tip-ple over, which interpreted, means that they need money and men. You did something before Christmas in that big $3,000,000 drive. But there will be another in the fall and you will be right in the thick of it. Because you know what you will give be spent on your boys, and you can never pay them back. owe to the boys—never in this world."I am requested by Y. M. C. A. headquarters to give a statement that 5,000 men and women, the sanest you have got in all your churches, for and that is only a little of what you will need before the war is over. In England we have 40,000 men and women working in our centers of work for our boys. They have given their best; why shouldn't you give your best?""In Great Britain we have 1,500 centers of work in the home camps. We have 500 centers of work in France and Flanders, and some of the huts I preached in just behind the lines in the hands of the Germans today—but they won't hold them long.
Two hundred of these centers in France and Flanders were under shellfire when I left—constant shellfire.
Some of them were in dugouts in the trenches, right in the trenches."
"Then we have centers of work in Salonica, in Mesopotamia, in Egypt, in Palestine. We have centers of work for us have Y. M. C. A. huts.
Jerusalem had not been captured when I was there. The British authorities want the Y. M. C. A. because they believe in the spirit of the men and preserved the morale of the army. Even the British soldiers who have done for the British, we will build you 1,200 huts.
What do you think of that? These huts? Well, we do all sorts of things.
A hut is a church; a hut is a home; a hut is a school; a hut is a home away from home. It's a canteen, a refreshment room, a library,
a recreation room, a game room, a writing room, a reading room. It is everything you like to make it, and the boys do love these huts."
"I have been through four of these Y. M. C. A. huts. The only shelter the boys have got while they are out of the trenches? Well, we do all sorts of things.

of preaching to the boys who had suffered in his hands. "I have been through four of these Y. M. C. A. huts. The only shelter the boys have got while they are out of the British officers and enlisted men had signed the Y. M. C. A. war roll cards confessing their faith in God and Christ and deciding to lead Christian lives. As an illustration of their acceptance of the Christian faith he cited the story of a youngster who had been wounded in a particularly sanguinary engagement:"Here was a dear boy on a stretcher I had led him to Christ. He was so broken I took the blanket and lifted it from his face, and then I got down and kissed him, and my lips and hands got covered with blood. I kissed him for his mother, for I knew she would never kiss him. I thought he was unconscious, but he asked me:"Gipsy, Gipsy, does it mean Blighly means home and mother, or does it mean West—and West means death."

"So I said: 'It means West; you are too far gone for Blighly; you will never see mother again. Can I tell her anything?' And he said to me:
'Tell her I am not afraid to die; I have found Christ. It is great to be free from.' And then he pointed to his head and said to me: 'Yes, it is battered and broken, but it will be all right when I get the crown.'"That is the kind of boys God has given us, men and women. Your boys are dying for the freedom of the world, don't you fail them—don't you fail them! Put in all you have—con-

MATRIMONIAL

Kinney-Bond.

Lloyd Kinney and Miss Ruth

Bond both of this city were announced in marriage in Hannibal,

Mo., Monday by Justice Totsch.

Kinney of Brown street and is a farmer by occupation. The brideis the daughter of S. J. Bond of East College avenue. They will make their home in this city.

Nienhiser-Brockhouse.

The marriage of Miss Esther

Brockhouse to Albert J. Nienhiser occurred at the home of the bride's parents, three miles north of Chapin at six o'clock Wednesday, May 8th.

Before the ceremony Arthur

Perbix rendered a violin solo and

Edwin Eckhoff sang "I Love You Truly." To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin played by Miss Ruth Nienhiser the bridal party assembled in the music room. Misses Eva Eckhoff andLetha Eller acted as bridesmaids, dressed in white organdie and netcarrying pink roses. Norma Per-bix was maid of honor and worea dress of white crepe-de-chine carrying pink roses. The groom'smen were William Nienhiser and Luther Brockhouse. Edna Brock-house, niece of the bride acted asring bearer carrying the ring in a rose. Little Anna Mae Aufdenkamp and Irma Louise Brock-house carried small baskets ofwhite flowers. The groom entered from the side door met hisbride, who was attired in a dress of white georgette crepe trimmed in pearls. She entered on the arm of her father. The ring ceremonywas performed by Rev. J. H. Siering under an arch of bridal wreath, with the stars and stripesas a background. On the same spot the bride's mother was married thirty eight years ago. Afterthe ceremony a two course luncheon was served.The music room was tastefully decorated with bridal wreath and white lilies, while in the living room was a large bouquet of redtulips. The color scheme of the dining room was pink which was carried out by the use of pinktulips and pink shaded candles.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Brockhouse.She is a graduate of Brown's college in Jacksonville and is and is held in high esteem by a large number of friends. Mr. Nienhiser is the eldest son of Mr. andMrs. F. Nienhiser and for a number of years has followed the vocation of farming. After a short wedding trip to Chicago they will be at home to their many friends at Chapin, Ill.

enjoyable evening was spent.After the banquet the members of the class with two double reels of motion pictures. This class, made up of a number of the young married people of Centenary, has in the past simply been known as the Young Married People's Class. At the meeting last night it was decided to change the name to that of 'The Kumjoynus Class.'

Deaths

Driver.

Richard Driver passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs.Hannah Vasconcellos, 603 North Prairie street Thursday morning at 1:10 o'clock. Death resulted from heart trouble superinduced by old age.Mr. Driver was a native of England, having been born in Yorkshire, April 20, 1865. He came to this country when quite young and settled in Ohio. He enlisted for service in that state in the war of the rebellion and served thru the war.Following the war he came to this state where he has since resided. He was united in marriage in 1869 to Miss Hannah Sweep who preceded him in death three years ago. Her death occurred in Arenzville and since that time he has made his home with his daughter.

Two daughters survive, Mrs.

Vasconcellos and Mrs. Jas. Bray-shaw of Weymouth, Mass. Mr.
Driver was a member of the Episcopal church and was always faithful in his worship. He was a member of the G. A. R. and the
I. O. O. F. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the residence in charge of Rev. W. E. Spoonst.Friends are requested to omit flowers.

NOTES FROM THE COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

The clover fields in Morgan county are very promising. L. A.

Reed on the Vandalla road has a fine field that has received bothground limestone and rock phosphate. The stand there is perfectand the growth unusually vigorous. This clover was seeded with the oats last spring. One crop of hay will be taken from the field.The second growth will be allowed to remain on the ground. This practice is much better from the standpoint of soil improvement than the custom of seeding clover in the spring and plowing it under the following fall.The county agent called Wednesday on a number of the members of the Morgan County Farmers' Club living in the vicinity of Waverly. They are a live bunch, and on to all the good things going. Dr. N. J. Hughes showedthe county agent over his 40 acre apple orchard west of town. A crew of men were spraying the trees with a combination of arsenate of lead and lime sulphur. They had up-to-date equipment and were doing the work in a first class manner. The doctor's son was helping. This orchard as it stands can serve as a demonstration between pruned and unpruned trees, trees cultivated and trees uncultivated and trees where the cover crop is clover, and where it is blue grass. This is a commercial apple orchard, pure and simple. Six varieties are grown, Jonathan, Ben Davis, Huntsman, Minkler, Roman Stem and Missouri Pippin.

Thru the courtesy of D. T.

Heimlich, district emergency demonstration agent, this office has been supplied with a great many valuable bulletins on poultry. Any person interested is invited to call at the office and help himself.
Those at a distance are requested to phone in, or write in their requests. These bulletins are valuable helps and are yours for the asking.The dairy business has suffered because consumers acquired a mistaken notion that they should not eat butter. They went to the extreme of boycotting milk, cheese, and butter. As a result, some dairymen have cut down their herds, and there is an oversupply of manufactured dairy products in storage. The U. S. Department of Agriculture is trying to correct the wrong impression by encouraging the consumption of milk and milk products.The common barberry bush is doomed to die. It has been found guilty of harboring the spores of wheat rust that endangers our bread supply. In a short time inspectors will come around, point out the guilty shrub and demand its destruction. This will leave the grounds of some very fine residences looking very rag-ged, but the move is for the common good.The necessity for good gardens is greater this season than last.
People are warned that seed is scarce, and are directed to get their supply early. Residents of towns are at a loss to know how to fertilize the back yard gardens. In the absence of well rotted manure they are advised to use dried blood and bone meal.
This commercial fertilizer also makes a fine top dressing for lawns.A great many farmers had difficulty in making the reports required under the income tax law.
The difficulty lay in a failure to keep accounts that would enable the farmer to answer the questions. This office has been supplied with a blank account book that is intended to lessen this difficulty. If interested, ask to see it.Mays Benson of Taylorville,

SALVATION ARMY

CAMPAIGN TO BEGIN.

A meeting of the general committee of the state council of defense was held at the Ayers National bank Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the call of Rev.W. E. Spoonst. The purpose was to outline some of the general arrangements for the Salvation Army campaign which will open Sunday afternoon at the opera house with a lecture by Dr. Charles T. Wheeler on "The Kaiser Doomed." The plan of solicitation and the apportionment will be the same as used for the army war recreation fund. The sum of $5,000 is to be raised and Jacksonville's portion is $2,800, the remaining part to come from the various precincts of the county. It is the purpose to complete this campaign in two days of the coming week, and the various teams will be asked to cover their territory on Monday and Tuesday and make report to the chairman immediately.The state apportionment is $400,000 and Morgan county's quota is $5,000. The work of the Salvation Army is intensive near the battle line and the work done is of the kind which has the heartiest approval of the government. The expenditure of money is carefully supervised and there are abundant testimonials to the efficiency of the relief work done.For sale cheap, if taken at

Cushman Binder Engine

The Cushman 4 H. P. is the one Successful Binder Engine. Thousands are in use every harvest. Fits any binder.Engine drives sickle and all machinery.

Since horses have only to pull machinery, two horses will easily handle 8-ft. binder in heavy grain. In a wet harvest Cushman Engine saves the crop, as it keeps sickle going when bull wheel slips.Very important—The weight of the engine on the rear of the binder, only 167 lbs., is balanced by the sickle water cooler on the front of the binder. This balancing, and the water cooling, to prevent overheating on all day runs, are necessary to successful work in a hot field.After harvest Cushman engine does all other work. Very light weight and easy to move around, yet runs more steadily than most heavy engines, because of Throttle Governor and perfect balance. 4 H. P. weighs only 190 lbs.; when stripped for binder only 167 lbs. 8 H. P. only 320 lbs. Also 15 and 20 H. P. sizes.

EAGLES POSTPONE FLAG SERVICE

Order Will Hold Ceremonial In Early Part of June.

Owing to the remodeling painting and decorating of the Eagles' lodge rooms, which work will be started very soon, the committee, on the Service Flag dedication ceremonies, have decided to postpone the services to the first part of June the exact date has not as yet been set. The committee expects to have a much better program arranged for the occasion. Springfield will be here and probably some of the state officers. It is hoped that Frank E. Herin, Past Grand President of South Bend, Ind., will be here. He is editor of the Eagles Magazine and a splendid orator.

ATTENTION LIBERTY BAND MEMBERS.

All members of the Liberty band and all other musicians in the city who desire to become members are requested to meet at musicians headquarters in the Ward building West Morgan street this afternoon at 4:15 o'clock to act as escort to the contingent of drafted men which leaves this afternoon.

The band held a good rehearsal in the band room Thursday evening which was well attended and much enthusiasm was shown. The boys while they have not reached the degree of perfection which will come later still will be able to furnish some first class music. Thomas Drake said last night that he did not know just what arrangements the exemption board had made for a program. However, if they wish anything special from the band they may arrange for it today by calling Mr. Drake or Prof. H. O. White.

STORM KILLS TWO PEOPLE AT FRANKLIN

AGED WOMAN AND GRAND-DAUGHTER CRUSHED BY FALLING TIMBERS.

Mrs. Lucy Hart Burch and Miss Bessie Hart died instantly when their home was destroyed by a cyclone which swept thru the town of Franklin, Mo., Thursday night.

Mrs. Lucy Ann Burch and her granddaughter, Miss Bessie May Hart of Franklin met instant death at 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning when their home was completely demolished by a cyclone which swept thru the town. The residence was split in two by the storm and the timbers and a large chimney fell inward and the two were completely buried under the debris. Charles W. Hart, father of Miss Hart and son of Mrs. Burch was in an adjoining room. A hole was knocked in the wall of the room but Mr. Hart escaped injury.

Screams Brought Assistance. Following the demolition of the house Mr. Hart screamed for help and then fainted away. James M. Woods was awakened by the crash of the falling house and hastily dressing hurried to the Hart home. When he arrived on the scene he called to Mr. Hart but received no answer and he thought they had all been killed. As he was hurrying away for help Mr. Hart regained consciousness and screamed again. Mr. Woods rescued him from the house and then went for assistance.

He soon arrived on the scene with A. P. Jolly and C. J. Wright. The men worked strenuously for some time. However, the bodies of Mrs. Burch and Miss Hart were completely buried under the wreckage and it was some time before both bodies were recovered. As soon as the bodies were taken out Dr. F. H. Metcalf was summoned but when he arrived he pronounced both dead.

The testimony of all of the above named men was heard by the coroner's jury in both cases. However, the only testimony that gave any light upon the manner of death was given by Mr. Hart.

Mr. Hart tells story. He testified that he was sleeping in an adjoining room to his daughter and mother. Shortly before 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning when the storm was raging his daughter came into his room and opened a window to let in her dog that was out in the storm. She spoke a few words to her father and then returned to her room. It had scarcely been a minute after she entered her room before the house was demolished.

Mrs. Burch was 78 years of age and had been a resident of Franklin and vicinity for many years. She was a woman who was highly regarded by all in the community.

Miss Hart was 24 years of age and was a young woman who held the high esteem of all. Her mother died some time ago and she had lived with her grandmother and father. The blow is a terrible one to Mr. Hart who will have the sympathy of all in his great bereavement.

The jury summoned by Coroner Rose was composed of Newt Woods foreman, J. B. Sears clerk, G. J. Dowell, George Schaaf, Otto Spies and Will C. Hart. After hearing the evidence it returned a verdict in both cases that death was caused by the wrecking of the home of Charles W. Hart by a cyclone about 2:30 o'clock on the morning of Thursday, May 9, 1918.

Young men look forward to owning a neat, thin model watch. We have them from $13.50 up.

The lodge at Davenport, Iowa, in which the deceased soldier held membership, will hold a memorial service next Tuesday.

VETERAN ALTON CONDUCTOR DEAD

S. F. Drake, Nestor of Alton Conductors Dies in Kansas City—With Road Since 1872.

Roodhouse, May 9.—S. M. Drake, aged 73 years, nestor of Chicago & Alton conductors and an employee of the system for nearly 50 years died suddenly at his home in Kansas City at 10:45 o'clock Thursday evening.

Deceased entered the employ of the road August 13, 1872 and was promoted to passenger conductor Sept. 7, 1883. Since then he has served as trainmaster at Roodhouse and Bloomington being eight years in that service.

Owing to the rearrangement of passenger schedules Mr. Drake removed from Roodhouse to Kansas City in April.

Besides his widow he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. John McConaghy of Roodhouse and one son, S. M. Drake, Jr., of Des Moines, Iowa.

HOWARD NUNES DROWNS AT PUMPING STATION

LAD FELL INTO DEEP POND OF OVERFLOW WATER.

Joshua Vasconcellos Took Brave Chances in Attempts at Rescue—Current so Strong that Body Could not be Taken to Shore in Time to Save Life—Pulmotor Used but to no Avail.

Howard Nunes, a lad aged eight years old, was drowned at the north side pumping station about 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. He was with some boy companions looking at the flood waters and in some manner fell into the pond just north of the pump house where the water is now seven or eight feet deep.

Commissioner Joshua Vasconcellos, who happened to be at the station, made heroic efforts to rescue the lad and succeeded in getting him from the water. Then the boy was hurried to Passavant hospital in care of Dr. W. P. Duncan. The pulmotor was used as quickly as possible but it was impossible to resuscitate the boy.

As the water at the south side station was muddy Mr. Vasconcellos went out to the north side wells to endeavor to make arrangements for pumping there, if the water had receded sufficiently to permit it. He was accompanied by George Souza, an employee of the water department. The two men were near the pump house when Mr. Vasconcellos heard the boys, whom he had not previously seen, call out that someone had fallen in and seemed to be drowning.

Mr. Vasconcellos at once rushed over to the pond, a few yards distant, jumped in and endeavored to reach the lad, who was caught in the swift current. He was carried so swiftly by the current that Mr. Vasconcellos with his heavy clothing on, could not swim rapidly enough to catch him. Then Mr. Vasconcellos returned to shore, took off part of his clothing and made another attempt at rescue. The current was so strong that he could not reach the lad.

Returning to the bank, he seized a rake which someone had brought and hurried into the water again at a point where he had seen the boy go down, evidently for the third time. In a few seconds he was able to catch hold of the lad's clothing with the rake and then reached down and brought the little body from the water. It was only after a struggle that Mr. Vasconcellos reached the shore with his burden. He rolled the boy on a barrel and worked his arms and legs in an endeavor to produce circulation and get the excess of water from the body.

Used Pulmotor at Hospital. Souza had hurried to a nearby residence telephone and Thomas DeFrates, another employee, was giving the assistance that Mr. Vasconcellos directed. Souza telephoned the fire department and Mr. Duncan. The physician came quickly and a man from the department were also at hand to give any assistance possible. Dr. Duncan administered all relief that could be given under the circumstances and had the boy removed to Passavant hospital. Chief of Police Davis sent the pulmotor to the hospital and the physician worked long and steadily in the effort to resuscitate the lad but without avail. The body was subsequently removed to the undertaking rooms of Williamson & Cody. Coroner Rose was notified and an inquest will be held today.

Several boys were with the unfortunate lad when he fell into the water and after giving the alarm they fled from the scene and watched the work of rescue at a distance. They were evidently terrified. A number of men were on the C. P. & St. L. tracks not far distant when the accident happened. Mr. Vasconcellos called to them to aid but the men declared that they could not swim and made no effort to assist.

While Mr. Vasconcellos said nothing about the matter himself, others present declared last night that the commissioner had a very close call himself and that they were very fearful for a time that because of his heavy clothing and the fact that he had not been in swimming for a great many years, that he would be unable to regain the bank.

Lad Youngest of Family. Mrs. Nunes, who lives not far distant from the pumping station, was notified of the accident and was almost frantic with grief. The boy is the youngest of a number of children and so was held especially dear by his mother.

The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

ANNUAL SESSION OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Central District Missionary Society of Central Christian Church Opened Two Days Session Thursday—Program of Great Interest Carried Out—President Delivers Annual Address—Program for Today.

The cause of missions is receiving a grand impetus thru the annual convention of the central district Missionary Society which began its sessions yesterday morning in the Central Christian church and will continue them during today. The territory comprises the counties of Hancock, McDonough, Fulton, Tazewell, Adams, Schuyler, Mason, Logan, Brown, Cass, Menard, Pike, Morgan, Sangamon, Scott, Calhoun, Greene, Jersey and Macoupin.

A fine body of consecrated men and women has been attracted, numbering some 150, the Mr. Pontius said if the weather and other conditions had been favorable there would have been a much larger attendance.

The gathering was called to order in the morning and a devotional bible study was conducted by Floyd B. Taylor, after which the president, W. D. Endres of Quincy delivered his annual address.

The address was eloquent and spirited and was heard with deep interest by all present.

Rev. C. E. French of Virginia is secretary and the chair humorously remarked that this was the first time a Ford had ever been known to fail but the gentleman arrived just in time to read his minutes of the last regular meeting and then the body adjourned for dinner. Dinner was served in the banquet rooms of the church by the Ladies' Missionary society and supper by the Christian Endeavor society and it is needless to add that all are well fed who patronize the tables.

Afternoon The afternoon session was full of interest but it was so long that comment on each number is impossible. It was as follows:

- 1:30—Devotional Service.
- 1:45—Message from the State President, Mrs. Lura V. Porter.
- 2:00—Message from the State Secretary, Miss Jennie Call.
- 2:15—Round Table. Conducted by Mrs. Imogene Eliff.
- Our Ideals.
- 1. A successful county organization, Mrs. E. L. Buckles.
- 2. A successful missionary society, Miss Pearl Jewsbury.
- 3. A successful children's organization, Mrs. Hornbecker.
- Discussion.
- 2:45—Address, Mrs. Olive Lind say Wakefield.
- 3:30—Business.
- 3:45—Missionary Play, directed by Miss Eleanor Thompson.
- 4:30—Benediction.

Evening. The following was the evening program and it was a feast of good things:

- 8:00—Address, "A Crisis, a Character, a Counterfeit and the Judgment Day," J. F. Bickel, Pres. State Convention, Taylorville.
- 8:30—Address, E. P. Gates, State Field Secretary, C. E. Union, Camp Point.
- 9:00—Devotional C. C. Wisner.
- 9:15—New Plan of District Missions, O. C. Bolman, District Evangelist.
- 9:45—Conference, "Efficiency," led by H. H. Peters, State Secretary.
- a. Non-resident preaching.
- b. Financing the new program.
- c. Transfer of church membership.
- 10:45—Conference: Correlated the Organizations in the Local Church, J. B. Rowleson, Minister.
- 11:30—Address, "Finances in the Local Church," W. F. Roth-enburger, Springfield.

Noon. 1:30—Business. Reports of Committees and the Election of Officers.

2:15—Address, "The Weakest Point in the Church School's Program," Miss Cynthia Pearl Maus, Cincinnati.

2:45—Religious Education Among the Disciples of Christ in Illinois, Stephen E. Fisher, Champaign.

3:15—New Pension Plan, John R. Golden, Decatur.

3:45—Address, "By My Spirit," J. A. Barnett, Lincoln.

4:15—Adjournment. An interesting character at the Christian church missionary convention is the venerable J. S. Lemon of Springfield. The old gentleman has attended these gatherings for 26 years. He is a veteran of the civil war, left a leg and a finger at Vicksburg and is a lively, intelligent man.

CHILD DIED FROM A RIFLE WOUND

Two Year Old Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Pogue Shot By Little Cousin.

Eva May, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Pogue residing one mile north of Peoria, died Thursday afternoon at Passavant hospital as the result of a rifle wound received at her home Thursday morning. The child was playing about the living room with three or four other children. It is understood that about 11 o'clock a cousin of Eva May's, six years old, came into the room with a 22 rifle. In some manner, unknown, the weapon was discharged the bullet striking the little one in the back, penetrating a lobe of the lung and coming out under the left arm. It was first believed that her life might be saved and accordingly she was brought to Passavant hospital, where she was attended by Dr. Carl E. Black soon after 1 o'clock. All efforts to save her life, however, were in vain and she passed away about 2 o'clock.

The body was taken to the undertaking establishment of Williamson & Cody and prepared for burial. Coroner C. A. Rose expects to empanel a jury and hold an inquest at the undertaking parlors this morning.

NOTICE!

One per cent of all our collections from our entire system for the month of May on all accounts made prior to May 1st, will be contributed to the RED CROSS. This contribution to go in the local Red Cross chapter where the collection is made. This is an opportune time to help the Red Cross, whose needs are more pressing than ever before on account of the number of soldiers that we are sending over the seas. La Crosse Lumber Co.

Letters of Interest from Jacksonville Boys in the Country's Service.

The following letter was received by Adjutant Green of the local exemption board from Picken Brewer, a former Jacksonville boy which should be of a great deal of interest. Mr. Brewer left here the 30th of last month with the fifty-one men from Morgan for Camp Dix, and desires a transfer to the marines.

The communication follows:

Camp Dix, New Jersey.
Mr. Hugh Green,
Jacksonville, Ill.

Dear Hugh:
The captain of our company took up the question of my being transferred with Division Headquarters, and they say the only way would be for me to get a discharge from the army and join the Marine Corps. The captain told me to write the Marine Corps Recruiting station and get a letter saying that I had applied there for enlistment, and the date, which was about April 1, and also write the local board and get a statement that I had been given permission to enlist.

I wish you would therefore give me a statement to the above effect, and if possible a copy of your letter of permission. As a matter of fact, when I wrote you concerning enlistment, I had almost given up all hope of having a waiver granted for my eyes, but am very glad I got the permission, as the captain says I have a good chance of being discharged. When I get my papers together he is going to write Washington about the case, and I hope this won't be too much trouble for you, Hugh.

Not Dissatisfied.

I would not want you to get the idea that I am dissatisfied here. Everything is even better than I had expected, but I've always thought that I would like the Marine Corps better. It's a harder life, I know, the training being more rigid than that of the army service, but I think it's more what I want. It's harder to get advancement in it than in the N. A. but that is of little consequence, as every one should get in what he thinks he'll like best. The fellows are getting along fine. We got in here about 12:30 Thursday morning, and were immediately taken on about a two and a half mile hike to the cafeteria. When we saw the large sign we thought we were in for a feed, but soon found that the building is not now serving its original purpose, and is now used as the "Buggery" where new arrivals are vaccinated, inoculated, and examined for lice, and almost everything else. The one thing you would notice in there was the large number of clerks and army doctors, and the speed with which the new men were taken before them. There were soldiers stationed at intervals of about ten feet, whose business was to see that each man ran on high from one doctor to another, or one group to another. While we were doing this we were carrying our clothes on one arm, three sets of blanks to be filled out in the opposite hand, and wondering if anyone would swipe our overcoats which we had to leave outside, where it looked like there was an army of new men. It was very cold. We later found out that they put about $500 men in the "Buggery," giving them the inoculation and vaccination, in one hour, a speed which would be thought impossible at any other camp.

We had to wait outside until almost four, when we were taken to the barracks. It was four when we got to bed, and some of us kidded ourselves into believing that they would let us sleep late. But we got up at six and stood at reveille, same as all the others. I think our whole gang was pretty badly disheartened the first day. We had gotten in under the worst condition possible. Nearly two days on the train, not a wink of sleep for most of us, as we had only one blanket and it was too cold. (We now have more.) However, everyone is full of pep now, and very much interested, and we find things not at all hard to like.

Splendid Work of Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. is doing more good than anyone who has never been to camp can imagine. There are nine separate "Y" buildings here, distributed over the camp so that everyone is conveniently located to one of them. Each, of course, has writing and reading rooms, also libraries, victrolas, and a large auditorium, where each night they put on free movie and vaudeville shows. The fellows surely appreciate the "Y" privileges more than ever before, and besides the entertainment and amusements a fellow gets out of it, there is just something about it that reminds a fellow that some of his duties are the same here as they were in civilian life.

Camp Dix is the largest camp in the country, they say. There are 55,000 men here now. The camp is 16 miles square, and its efficiency in handling new men and giving them the rudiments of military training is unequalled anywhere, which probably accounts for the large quota of Illinois men being sent here.

Just got a letter, Hugh, my first one, and will write the rest of what I have to say some other time. Will appreciate your trouble in this matter very much. I don't like to trouble you so much, but you can see my view point and understand it. I feel sure that I'll get an encouraging letter from the marines, because they know I tried to get in there for several weeks, when it looked as if there wasn't a chance in the world.

Regards to Miss Mount, and others, and assuring you of my warmest personal feeling, I am, Sincerely,
P. E. S. Brewer.

Letter from Fred Bray.

The following interesting letter from Fred Bray was received at the Journal office Thursday. It is given herewith:
Camp Merritt, N. J., May 5, 1918.
Editor Journal:

When I left home, one year ago tomorrow, I little thought that I'd be this long getting started across, but at last we can reasonably expect to sail soon, as we've been here at Camp Merritt since last Wednesday night.

When we woke up Friday morning we found that a new unit had arrived during the night and were billeted next to us. This unit, I soon discovered, is from Springfield. I heard one of them tell another one that he had called up Carl Lukeman at the Sigma Chi house as he passed thru Washington, and I'm afraid I "buted in" before he had a chance to finish his sentence.

We dug up several common acquaintances, including "Oozle," "Friz," and Byron Graff, and in the same company I found a Bon-Ansinga who is related to the B's on the east side of the square, and a McLaren who used to work for Mr. O'Donnell, the undertaker.

I spent yesterday and last night in New York, and have hardly recovered from what I saw, and heard and felt. I found the city working desperately hard to go over the top in the sale of Liberty Bonds. Fifth avenue was so jammed with speakers, listeners, bands and parade, that most of the regular Fifth Avenue traffic had to make a detour via Madison Avenue. It must be tough to be a civilian these days for there seems to be no end of demands to contribute to this or that, either to "win the war," or "back up the boys." It is a time, however, when everyone must make sacrifices, and it is marvelous the way the whole country is responding.

Besides the "stock" attractions which one doesn't even have to name—everyone sees them when he visits New York—we saw fifty of the "Blue Devils" from the French army, probably the same number of "Angels" from the Australian army and fifty of Pershing's men direct from the trenches. These fellows literally "owned the town," they stimulated the bond sales considerably, and seemed to be enjoying themselves hugely.

I find the east wildly enthusiastic about the war. They see this endless stream of men going over, and even a few wounded coming back, and I imagine the war seems much closer to them than it does to Chicago.

Sergeant Lashmet came out to see me while I was in the city. I'm sorry to have missed him, but I have just been talking to him over the phone and I think I'll be able to see him before we sail.

Sincerely,
Fred W. Bray.

P. S. My address is? "Hospital Train No. 32, A. E. F."

From Soldier in France.

The following letter was received a few days ago by W. T. Fisher of near Murrayville:
Somewhere in France, April 3, '18.
My dear Brother:

I received your kind and always welcome letter of Feb. 27th on Good Friday. I am glad that you and sister are well, but sorry to hear that sister's father is sick. I hope he is well by this time. It sure is too bad that Aunt Alice died. I was not surprised to hear of her death, as she had heart trouble. I hope that mother and father are both well. From what I have heard you people back home had some hard winter weather, but I guess by the time this letter reaches you, you can go around in your shirt sleeves.

You ask me what I am in this army. I am a private, but not a corporal or sergeant. I was a mule skinner for a while but now a soldier. That is fixing harness which the boys have torn up. You ask me about the girls over here. They are not as good as American girls to me. I appreciate your kind offer to take care of me if I get injured for life. I didn't come here to get injured but to injure the other fellow. Anyway, I have $10,000 insurance, which will help some. I could use some Camel cigarettes as cigarettes are hard to get over here. But what I need the most is a razor. Please send me a Gem razor. I lost mine the other day.

Say, you have heard the song, "They are Simply Running Wild Over Me." Well, I can say that, but it is not the girls but cooties. You would laugh if you could see us boys look for cooties. I would like to tell you my experience over here but will have to put that off until I see you. You ask me if I get plenty to eat. Well, I will leave that to you. When I joined I wore a 31 inch belt and now I wear a 36 inch belt and it is tight. I will close for this time and write more next time. Excuse bad writing and misspelled words, as I am writing this by candle light with a board across my knee. I remain as ever, your brother, Orderly Robinson Makes Report.

Orderly Robinson, who was in charge of the Morgan county soldiers who left last week for Camp Dix, has sent the following letter or report to Hugh Green, adjutant in the office of the Morgan county local board:

"Suppose you have received my letter written on the train before now. I will have to admit that I hardly know what I said or where I mailed it, but I remember I got it off somewhere before we got here to camp.

"You know already that we arrived O. K. and everyone seems to be in pretty good spirits just now. All were rather blue and sore for the first and second days, but we all feel pretty good by now. You see, we had to be shot in the arm before we got to even go to bed so we didn't feel very well after all that. Our arms are almost free from soreness now and we begin to feel more like ourselves. We were examined today and I don't know of one that is going to be returned. In fact, the fellows here say they never send one back when they once get them here.

"We have been taking instructions nearly all the time we have been here, but we hope to get our uniforms this next week and also to get mustered in and placed in the place for which we are best fitted and where we are most needed.

"Had one of our men laid up for two days on sick list on account of his arm. It was Morris Miner, but he is all right now and able to get around."

NOTICE TO AUTO OWNERS

A large number of automobile and motorcycle owners who use West State and Prairie streets as a speedway seem to have no regard for human life or our traffic ordinance. Machines are continually going up and down this street at a greater speed than 15 miles an hour which is the limit. This practice must be stopped as the police department will make every effort to arrest violators. The fine for violation of the traffic ordinance is from $5 to $50. Special officers will be detailed to catch these violators.

A CLERICAL FARMER.
Rev. C. G. Cantrall of Concord is a patriotic man and believes in boosting and talking for the government and helping all he can but he believes also that deeds are a good thing at the same time. A plot of three and a half acres was offered him and he took it and neighbors have supplied the horse power for preparing it. Those especially kind to him were Bert Way, Ora Hamm and William Zahn. He has planted an acre to potatoes and Wednesday finishing planting the rest of the patch in corn and he means to tend the whole and see that it yields good results as far as intelligent care can accomplish.

NOW RAILROAD MAGNATE.

Dr. George S. Skeen of Pecos, Texas, was a visitor in the city yesterday. Dr. Skeen for a number of years was a resident of Jacksonville practicing osteopathy. He is now superintendent of the Pecos Valley railroad, a small line that runs thru the Pecos Valley country and is maintained by big stockmen for shipping to the main line railroads. Mr. Skeen had been in Kansas City attending a meeting of railroad men and took the opportunity to run over here and spend a day with relatives and friends.

C. A. Rowe has returned from Springfield where he attended the sessions of the district exemption board.

MATT STARR POST. ATTENTION.

All members of the post are requested to meet at the Court House at 4 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon to act as escort to the boys who will leave for the training camp over the Wabash road at 5:20. Come rain or shine and if you get wet it won't be the first time. This call includes all veterans whether members of the post or not. There will be plenty of music and plenty of enthusiasm to cheer the boys who are getting ready to go "over the top."

BILLY SUNDAY WINS
Chicago, May 9.—Baseball

known only by reputation to pre-again today in a game played despite rain for several hundred Jackies from the Great Lakes

Among the veterans were "Bil-fer, one of the greatest second basemen; "Tony" Mullane, who pitched for the "Reds" when Comiskey played first base, and "Jimmy" Ryan of the old Colts.

The veterans were divided into two teams, the All-Nationals and All-Americans. The Nationals won in the fourth inning on a single by "Billy" Sunday. At this time with the score 14 to 9, rain made the continuation of the contest impos-

NO CAMOUFLAGE
IN THIS STORY
Says corns stop hurting, then lift right off without one bit of pain

Hospital records show that ever-time you cut a corn you invite lockjaw or blood poisoning, which is needless, says a Cincinnati authority, who tells you that a quart of corns of a drug called Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus without even one little twinge of pain.
You simply apply a few drops of this Freezone on a tender, aching corn and the soreness is instantly relieved. Shortly the entire corn can be lifted out, root and all, with your fingers.
This drug is sticky but dries at once and is claimed to just shrivel up any corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.
If your wife wears high heels she will be glad to know of this—adv.

LEMON JUICE
FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well and you have a quart of skin cream. Freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautiful, at very, very small cost.
Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

Chicago Wins Final Game 6 to 2—Pirates Play Listless Game—Other National League Games.

Pittsburgh, May 9.—Chicago won today's game 6 to 2 and thereby divided the series with Pittsburgh. Sanders, starting the game for Pittsburgh gave way to Harmon after yielding four runs on five hits in six innings. Harmon also was unable to stop the visiting batsmen, four hits in succession in the eighth inning scoring two more runs. Vaughn pitched well and altho his support wavered at times he was always equal to the task of retiring the side. Pittsburgh played listless ball.

GREAT SUCCESS OF
REV. JAMES R. SMITH

What the Church Editor of the St. Louis Times Says About a Former Jacksonville Boy.

The following extracts from an extended article in the St. Louis Times pertain to a boy formerly of this city. His mother was a sister of the late Mrs. T. D.
Eames; his father, Prof. J. B.
Smith, was principal of the Franklin school for a time. He was on the Journal staff a good while.

The church with the open door and warm heart, where the tenets of the deity of Jesus, the infallibility of the Bible and the efficacy of prayer are upheld, is the Olive Branch Congregational Church, Missouri avenue and Sidney street.

And the pastor, Rev. James R.
Smith, is pre-eminently a man of the people, who, as his friend, William Jennings Bryan, said is the only man who to his knowledge has left the railway engine cab for the pulpit.

A Popular Preacher.
Robustly built a hale and beary man of 54, who, however, has the appearance of a man of 40, still full of youthful enthusiasm and earnest endeavor his fervent appeals at once capture the hearts of his auditors, which accounts for the lively co-operation of his congregation.

The visitor, Christian or not, cannot fail to feel at home in this communion, which teems with sympathetic hospitality and evangelistic love.

Pastor Smith has the advantage in having had a long training in the revivalist field. He hails from Vernal, Mississippi, where he was born in 1864. His father was Prof. James B.
Smith, former principal of Barlow Academy, school for young men at Mobile, Ala. The family formerly resided at Jacksonville, Ill., where the son knew former Governor Richard Yates, William Jennings Bryan and Mil-lonaire Ed. Coltra.

After graduating from the Jacksonville High School, Mr.
Smith yielded to his roaming spirit and drifted to the Rocky Mountain region in Colorado, where he worked in the lumber camps and later fell in with the general superintendent of the Colorado Southern. In 1882 we find him employed as a switchman in the Buena Vista yards.

Egan's Private Secretary.
Owing to an injury sustained in an accident he was transferred to the Westinghouse Automatic School as private secretary to M. F. Egan, who later became master mechanic of the Union Pacific lines.

It was under Egan that he studied locomotive work and saw service on both sides of the cab.
His conversion took place in 1882 while on a visit to his mother at Jacksonville.

After his conversion Mr.
Smith went to Fort Scott, Kan., where he became interested in railway work. Y. M. C. A. work and in this field he has held high office for many years. It was at the big State, Y. M. C. A. convention at Topeka, Kan., that he met Dwight L. Moody, and he was induced to study for three years in the famous Bible Institute in Chicago. He was ordained in 1894, and for nearly a quarter of a century Pastor Smith has been engaged in the conversion of souls.

Called to St. Louis.
For 11 years he labored as the superintendent of the Barr Mission, Twenty-third street and Wentworth avenue, Chicago, and after working for some time he accepted the pastorate of Hope Congregational church Cote Prillante and Semple avenue.

Six years ago he became the pastor of the Olive Branch Church, which, under his indefatigable labors is showing a healthy growth.

In all these years Mr. Smith has done evangelistic work under the International Committee of the Railway Y. M. C. A. and has taken part in a score of campaigns in behalf of the cause.

Flourishing Sunday School.
Under the energetic superintendent, Albert Maginot, the Olive Branch Sunday School is in flourishing condition with membership of 160. I believe this is the only Sunday school in the city where no rewards for attendance are offered. As Mr.
Maginot said to me yesterday:
"We want children to come to this school to study the Bible, not for a reward, but because they want to."

The pastor teaches the Bible class himself. Some of the men and women mentioned here have labored in the school for from 22 to 24 years. Mrs. Agnes Johnson is the church clerk, who for many years has acted as secretary at all the meetings in the church and keeps the records.

There was an inspiring scene during the services yesterday morning, when a score or more of the Boy Scouts of the Church followed a huge starry banner borne by the leader while the congregation sang a stirring hymn.
This body of scouts has grown from four members in 1916 to 33. One of the members of Olive Branch, William F. Kuhl, has joined the colors, and on Wednesday night a farewell service will be held in his honor.

Drops Fourteen Pennies.
I must not forget to mention one excellent feature in the Sunday school. Any one who will celebrate a birthday during the coming week comes to the front and drops a penny in the contribution box for every year of his or her existence.

Miss Grace Smith, daughter of the minister, is the organist and pianist for both the church and Sunday school. There is also a large choir and an excellent male quartet, consisting of George Massie, William Kohl, Edward Henchler and Albert Maginot.

Olive Branch Church is 34 years old.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I, therefore, believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; to defend it against all enemies.
